EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

SUBSTITUTE TITLE:

Liquid crystal display device having particular alignment controlling elements in transmissive and reflective pixel regions

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-18 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claim 1, arguments are persuasive to overcome the rejection. Specifically, arguments are persuasive in identifying that the prior art fails to disclose or suggest the alignment controlling elements as having linear portions extending across each of the transmissive and reflective display regions wherein the linear portion in the reflective display region has a greater cross-sectional area than the linear portion in the transmissive display region.

occupying area of the alignment controlling elements in the reflective display region as set larger than the occupying area of the alignment controlling elements in the transmissive display region wherein the distance between two of the alignment controlling regions within a same island-shaped reflective region is smaller than the distance between the adjacent two of the alignment controlling elements in the transmissive display region.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
